Lenten devotions focus on Luther during the 500th anniversary

As Christian women we like to share with each other resources we come across that we feel other women may be interested in.

Through Facebook we became aware of a Lenten devotional booklet created by members of the Southwood Lutheran Church in Lincoln, Nebraska. What makes this devotional special is that it focuses on Luther. "Faith in God's Promises: Praying through Lent with Luther's Small Catechism" is timed perfectly as we celebrate the 500th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation.

It provides us with the opportunity to reflect on what Luther had to say in the Small Catechism.

We encourage you to take your first step into Lent on this, Ash Wednesday, and download "Faith in God's Promises: Praying through Lent with Luther's Small Catechism." As always, all materials we promote have been reviewed by our pastoral counsellors and found to be doctrinally sound.

"Always Called to Serve," a day of spiritual growth, coming soon

An incredible opportunity for experiencing God's love for you and your life is happening across Canada in the months of April, May and June and into the fall. Always Called to Serve is a day-long event especially for women where you will dig into God's Word, fellowship with sisters in Christ and carry out service to others. Encourage the women of your congregation to attend—it isn't just for LWMLC women.

Watch for the date of the event in your area, write it in your calendar, and make time to attend. You will find the most recent listing of dates and locations at <http://wp.me/P2VnXD-1i> (short link directly to the page) There will be ideas to help you (both societies and individuals) spread the word in the coming issue of Staying (Get) Connected. On page 2 of the print version of this message is a version of the poster.

These events are being coordinated by local contacts and the writers of the materials, with financial support of LWMLC. If you can't attend one of these locations and dates consider requesting the materials from the Resource Centre to host your own event.

Don't miss this special opportunity to connect, reconnect and be strengthened with and by our Heavenly Father and members of His family as you explore the theme "Always Called to Serve."
