Are you familiar with the phrase “put on your Sunday best?” Do you remember the days you dressed for church, and how you felt “putting on your Sunday best?” What was your attitude as you readied yourself to gather in the House of the Lord? Many of us admit as we watch our Pastors lead the Divine service on our devices in our loungewear, our attire would not pass for “Sunday best.” But should we wait until protocols are loosened to “put on our Sunday best?” This is not referring to our attire, but to our attitude. Let us “put on your Sunday best” as we present ourselves to face each day with an attitude of “I am a loved child of God.”
