

TAPESTRY THEMES FOR SUMMER AND FALL 2021

SUMMER 2021

DAILY WITH MY LORD

Deadline: February 1, 2020

This issue of Tapestry will arrive shortly after our national convention where delegates and guests will meet under the theme “Christ Lives in Me.” In the summer 2021 issue of Tapestry we want to consider how we nurture His life in us. Faith is a gift, but we can make choices that work against that faith or choices that keep it alive and growing. A way to do so is to spend time in His presence each day. Here are some ideas that might spark a story that helps others enrich their daily time with God.

- What does Scripture say? How does that help keep you motivated?
- Idea(s) for developing a daily habit.
- Share an experience from which others may learn that might start someone off on an adventure of their own.
- Tell about a favourite resource and how it has helped you.
- How do we avoid the “I’ll catch up tomorrow” thought that can lead us away from our daily walk with God?

Or consider a seasonal contribution for this summer issue: an article, a craft, a poem...

FALL 2021

LIVING FORGIVENESS

Deadline: May 1, 2020

In the summer 2021 issue we looked at how Christ living in may be nurtured. This time we move to something more action oriented. If Christ lives in us, when we act, He acts through us. Let’s consider just what that means when it comes to giving and receiving forgiveness. Perhaps the following will spark memories of times you could share to increase the understanding of others.

- What have you discovered from Scripture?
- Finding peace in forgives.
- The danger of holding grudges.
- The role of forgiveness in reconciliation.
- Dealing with forgiveness that is one-sided?
- The Lord’s Prayer calls us to forgive as we have been forgiven; following Jesus’ example of forgiving isn’t easy. Share an experience of forgiving someone or being forgiven from which others might learn.

Or consider a seasonal contribution: an article, a craft, a poem....
