

CHILDREN'S TALK

based on Psalm 100:1

LWMLC Sunday 2026

Make a joyful noise to the Lord, all the earth (Psalm 100:1)!

If possible have percussive instruments - this can be done easily by purchasing tambourines, shakers, castanets, from a dollar store or even purchasing plastic eggs and filling them with rice, noodles and corn. If you don't have any instruments you can encourage children to clap and slap their knees.

Good morning!

I want to share with you a special verse from God's Word the Bible, Psalm 100:1.

*Make a joyful noise (cup your mouth)
to the Lord (lift hands)
all the earth. (hands form a circle for the earth)*

Have children repeat the verse with you a few different times

Let me ask you some questions.

- What sounds do you hear outside in the morning?
Birds chirping, dogs barking, a cat, or if you live near a farm cows or roosters.
- What about the wind rustling through the trees, or a babbling stream or waterfall?

Up at our cottage, in the summer, we can hear bullfrogs, cicadas and sometimes a crackling campfire at night.

I think these are ways the whole earth "makes a joyful noise to the Lord."

This morning I brought some instruments so together we could "make a joyful noise to the Lord." Hand out instruments.

This Bible verse has also been made into an "echo song" by Jim & Carol Owens.

Let's try it this morning. I will sing a part and then you repeat it (Sing it through a few times as children play instruments and sing.)

Make a joyful noise unto the Lord all the earth

Make a joyful noise unto the Lord.

Make a joyful noise unto the Lord all the earth

Make a joyful noise unto the Lord.

Make a loud noise, rejoice, sing praises

Make a joyful noise unto the Lord.

Make a loud noise, rejoice, sing praises

Make a joyful noise unto the Lord.

(Jim & Carol Owens)

Let's pray:

Dear Lord, thank-you for encouraging us and the whole earth to make a joyful noise to You.

We rejoice and sing praises for Your never-ending love and many blessings.

Help us share this joy with others. In Jesus' name we pray. Amen.
