HOLY CONVERSATIONS

Spring 2027

Submission Deadline: November 1, 2026

How would you define conversation?

Sometimes we talk, sometimes we listen. Though the balance may vary, both are essential for it to be conversation. Our heavenly Father invites us to a conversation when He says, "Pray."

- What do you talk to Him about?
- How do you listen?
- Do you pray aloud, or silently, or with paper and pencil (writing or drawing)?
- You may picture our triune God as King of the Universe, a friend, a brother, a papa. He has described Himself as each of these. Does how you picture Him change your conversation?
- Or...does the expression holy conversation mean a chat with someone that intentionally or unexpectedly turns in a spiritual direction?
- How can one have such a spiritual conversation with a person of another faith without offending but stay true to God's Word?

Use one of these questions or LSB 772 as a springboard to something you want to share.

This issue will be published as Lent begins and the studies used throughout the spring. Seasonal submissions are welcome, as are those not directly related to the theme.

Please keep the length of your submission in mind so we can fit in a greater number of stories.

Send your submissions for consideration to Editor-in-Chief Marion Hollinger at tapestry@lutheranwomen.ca or 223 - 250 Hunter Road, Saskatoon, SK S7T 0Y4.
